

WHOLE NO. 9790.

THE SEAT OF WAR IN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Line of Retreat of Lee's Rebel Army from Gettysburg--The Mountain Gaps Through Which He Will Probably Attempt to Pass.

POST OFFICE NOTICE. POST OFFICE NEW YORK, JULY 1, 1863.—SPECIAL attention of the public is requested to the following extracts from the new Postal law, which takes effect from the 1st of July, 1863.

Letters of no value in the office will not be postage being paid, and will be returned to the sender, unless the sender has paid the postage in advance. Letters of no value in the office will not be postage being paid, and will be returned to the sender, unless the sender has paid the postage in advance.

FINANCIAL. ARMY AND NAVY CLAIMS.—SUI. GARRI ON AD- vances and claims of Army and Navy officers and others, in arrears of pay, allowances, and other claims, are being paid by the Treasury Department.

OFFICE OF THE HOWARD INSURANCE COMPANY. The Board of Directors have this day declared a semi-annual dividend of five per cent, payable on demand.

OFFICE OF THE JERSEY CITY INSURANCE COMPANY. The Board of Directors have this day declared a semi-annual dividend of five per cent, payable on demand.

THE TRADES. BARBERS WANTED.—BY L. GIBBERTIN, CORNER of Nassau and Broadway, No. 118. Hair cut, wash, and shave, as usual.

SITUATIONS WANTED.—FEMALES. A NUMBER OF WELL RECOMMENDED GERMAN girls want situations as cooks, chambermaids, laundresses, or in families. Address: Mrs. J. H. B. at No. 100 Broadway.

HELP WANTED.—FEMALES. WANTED—A NURSE AN AMERICAN ENGLISH, Scotch or German girl, to take care of a child sick with measles. Address: Mrs. J. H. B. at No. 100 Broadway.

CLOTHING. A GREAT BATTLE FIGHT—THE VICTOR IS a great battle fought between the victor and the vanquished. The victor is the one who has the most of the goods.

RAILROADS. HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD.—TRAINING FOR ALL the trains of the Hudson River Railroad will be held at the depot at New York, on Monday, July 6, 1863.

CORPORATION NOTICES. OFFICE OF CLERK OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS. Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Board of Supervisors will be held on Monday, July 6, 1863.